LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

ASHLAND, MAY 27, 1888

GIPIERS.—A band of gipsies passed through town last week, and located some two miles away on the Mansfield road.

PERSONAL.—Hon. William Ritesell, the talented and gentlemanly Editor of the Warren Chronicle, and Representative from old Trumbull, gave us a flying visit on Friday last, on his return from the Chicago Convention: and spent an hour in a friendly chat. We fully appreciate such a call, for Mr. Ritesell is a leading Republican Editor in North-east Ohio.

DECORATION OF SOLDIERS GRAVES.—We are requested to state, that the members of the Grand Army of the Republic, together with all others who desire to participate in the exercises, will meet at their Hall, in Ashland, on Saturday next, May 30th at 2 o'clock, P. M., with a view to the decoration of the graves of those who fell in the late war. It is also desirable that flowers &c, be brought in for this purpose.

THEATER.—Read the announcement for Miss Caroline Hayes, on Monday Evening next. Miss Hayes is one of the most accomplished actresses in the country, and she is accompanied by one of the best traveling companies in the States. Go and hear her.

Every married man should let his wife have the management of the house department, and give her as secretary, the control of the different bureaus. But don't let her have anything to do with the War Department.—Exchange.

Then how is she to bring the Infantry up to the "brest-works," we should like to know, in case of an attack of the measles. It is evident that the writer of the above has never been in any engagements.

GERMAN LUTHERAN CHURCH.—The laying of the corner stone for the new German Lutheran Church in the West part of Ashland, will take place on Wednesday of next week, at 10 o'clock, A. M., of said day. An English address will be delivered by Rev. P. Erick, of Zanesville.—The public are invited to attend.

REAPER & MOWER.—BEST MACHINE IN THE WORLD.—Winbigler & Vannimon will keep on hand, in Ashland, for sale, Dodge's patent Reaper & Mower. This machine has taken three gold medal premiums. All persons wishing to purchase a splendid Reaper and Mower, will do well to call and examine this one, before purchasing elsewhere. The machine is warranted to perform all it promises. It can be sold at from $190 to $210 on time, with proper security.

Notice.—The Ashland County Board of Equalization, will meet on Friday, June 5th, 1888, at the Auditor's Office, in Ashland, Ohio. All persons desiring corrections in Assessments made by township Assessors will appear on said day and present cause for change of assessment, if any they have.

R. M. CAMPBELL,
County Auditor.

STRAYED OR STOLEN.—A cow of the Durham stock—roan color, small white spots over body—in fine order—small straight horns—is about six years old, and is dry. She disappeared from Ashland about the 11th of May. Any person giving information of her whereabouts will be suitably rewarded.
